

Restrictions on media cross-ownership should NOT be lifted but should be enforced vigorously. Cross-ownership will result in monopoly markets, limited expression of varying viewpoints and a greater emphasis on corporate profits and the resulting mentality, rather than public service and an informed citizenry.